

The Art Galleries at PCCC

present

Painting and Collage Workshop

Friday, December 14, 2018

11:45 a.m. – 1:15 p.m.

Passaic County Community College
Hamilton Club Building, Seminar Rm., 2nd floor
32 Church St., Paterson

Maria Mazziotti Gillan, known to many as award-winning poet and founder/executive director of the Poetry Center at PCCC, will be leading this free beginner's art workshop. The session will be hands-on with participants creating their own artwork to take home. Be ready to have fun and release your inner child.

Painting supplies and paper will be available. However, if you would like to experiment with collage, please bring magazines, cloth, stickers or other items.

To register for this free workshop, contact Susan Balik, Manager, Cultural Affairs at 973-684-5444 or sbalik@pccc.edu.

Window with Big Bird, Maria Mazziotti Gillan, mixed media on paper

The Hamilton Club is wheelchair accessible. The Passaic County Cultural & Heritage Council is funded, in part, by a grant from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.

