

PCCC Library/LRC – Main Campus

Entrance / Exit

Circulation Desk
This is where you borrow and return library books, or request items that your professors may have on reserve. You must have a current, valid student ID to borrow books from the library. The loan period is 14 days with one renewal.

Rules & Miscellaneous To maintain a pleasant and appropriate environment in the Library, please adhere to a few simple rules. Loud or excessive talking is not appropriate in a Library, nor is cell phone use. In order to preserve the Library and its materials, all food and drink except water is prohibited. Also, please refrain from re-shelving books and magazines. Copiers ($.10/copy) are located near the Circulation Desk.

Circulating Collection
The collection is called "circulating" because these books circulate. That is, they may be borrowed from the library, as opposed to reference books, which may not be borrowed from the library.
