

Real Artistic Writers Club

Poetry & Open Mic Reading with Special Guest

Martín Espada

February 19, 2015
1:00 pm – 2:30 pm

Main Campus
The Paterson Room
(in Academic Hall)

Featured Reading
& Open Mic for All!

Called “the Latino poet of his generation,” Martín Espada is a Brooklyn-born poet, editor, essayist, translator and author of over 15 books.

His latest poetry collection The Trouble Ball received the Milt Kessler Award, a Massachusetts Book Award, and an International Latino Book Award. The Republic of Poetry won the Paterson Award for Sustained Literary Achievement and was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize.

Mr. Espada’s other honors include an American Book Award, the Robert Creeley Award, and a Guggenheim Foundation Fellowship. His work has been widely translated and published internationally.

A former lawyer with a degree from Northwestern University Law School, Mr. Espada is currently an English professor at the University of Massachusetts – Amherst

INFO: Professor Lauren Schmidt
Faculty Advisor – Office 206
lschmidt@pccc.edu

RAW is an SGA
Affiliate