Circulating Book
Collection

The collection is called "circulating" because these books circulate, that is, they may be borrowed from the library, as opposed to reference books, which may not be borrowed from the library

Circulation Desk
Located near the entrance, this is where you borrow and return library books, or request items that your professors may have on reserve. You must have a current, valid student ID to borrow books from the library. The loan period is 14 Days with one renewal
