

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH @ PCCC

Opening Ceremonies*

March 7, 2013

1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Passaic Academic Center

Featured Guest

Dr. Shermian P. Daniel, MD

Graduate of Johns Hopkins University and the University of Medicine and Dentistry of NJ

Resident Physician in Anesthesiology
Mayo Clinic

Author of

So You Wanna Be A Doctor??

The Untold Stories of Medical, Dental, and Veterinary Residents

Dr. Daniel will share her personal stories about saving lives and surviving setbacks in her journey to a medical career.

She is an ambassador for Child Family Health International, member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and activist for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Dr. Daniel is a strong advocate of education and community involvement and works tirelessly to increase the number of young doctors providing compassionate and competent care.

*This program is limited to students, faculty, and staff of the PCCC Community

Sponsored by the Student Programing Committee of the PCCC Student Government Association.