

The Passaic County Community College Theater Program

Presents

Aristophanes'

ASSEMBLY OF WOMEN

A Contemporary Adaptation featuring
PCCC Theater Students

Directed by
R.G. Rader

Utopia is that which is in contradiction with reality.

Albert Camus

Women and men. Politics and power. Disguises and deceptions.
Women take over the government in this hilarious
comedy/satire with a modern twist.

April 17-20 7:30 pm

PCCC Theater - Paterson Campus
Entrance at Ellison Street and Memorial Drive

Tickets $5.00 Reservations: 973-684-6413
(Tickets also sold at the door before performances)

Please note that some material may be inappropriate for children under 13