

GROWING & SUSTAINING A BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Free Workshop for Passaic County Non-Profits

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 2017

10 AM – 12:30 PM

32 CHURCH ST., 1ST FL.

PATERSON, NJ

The Passaic County Cultural & Heritage Council at Passaic County Community College will host a free workshop led by Pat Bohse of Bohse & Associates, Inc. Ms. Bohse will discuss how to recruit, sustain and reward a board of directors, understand by-laws and other policies, and develop board members’ job descriptions. Open to Passaic County non-profits. Lunch will be served.

Please RSVP to Nicholas Rodriguez, Assistant Director of the Passaic County Cultural & Heritage Council, at nrodriguez@pccc.edu. For more information call 973-684-6507.

Pat Bohse is a human resource and management consultant with over three decades of experience working with non-profit organizations and government agencies. She holds academic credentials in Business Administration and Sociology, and is a graduate of the Non-Profit Management Institute of Columbia University.

