Broadway & LRC Galleries – through September 22
Broadway at Memorial Drive – Paterson, NJ

Al Tacconelli created these delightful whimsical digital artworks as noontime escapes from the insanity of the work day. At the end of September 2010, Invocation at Noon (Series) will have a new home at the Passaic Academic Center.

Artist and poet, Al Tacconelli has been a generous supporter of the Contemporary Art Collection at Passaic County Community College.

He donated a considerable part of his own private collection of art, including pieces by Japanese master woodblock print artists Hiroshige and Hokusai, among others, as well as a number of his own paintings and works on paper.

A sampling of color copies made from digital photographs of the original Japanese woodblock prints on permanent display at the Hamilton Club, 32 Church Street, Paterson, NJ.
