Professor Mark Hillringhouse, a noted poet and photographer, appears on the cover of Lamplighter, a New Jersey magazine dedicated to alternative music and culture.

Professor Hillringhouse was interviewed by Lamplighter about his life, work, and new book Between the Frames, a collection of poems and photographs representing the author's authentic New Jersey voice.

"I don't think that my poetry has a particular message to give. I hope it gives people pleasure," Professor Hillringhouse told interviewer Marla Lacherza, a former PCCC student.

The article includes samples of the professor's poetry and photos.
