PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
HOURS WILL BE AWARDED

Dr. Zambrano will be discussing and reviewing information on working with children and adolescents with anxiety disorders. He will focus on Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, Social Phobia, Generalized Anxiety, and School Refusal. Dr. Zambrano will discuss ways to diagnose these disorders, effective treatments for these issues (from a cognitive behavioral therapy perspective), and how to make reasonable classroom accommodations to help children cope with these issues.

Topics to be discussed include:

- School related issues
- Ways to recognize students' difficulties as well as their strengths and potential
- Approaches and strategies that enable teachers to create a learning environment thus supporting the social/emotional and intellectual development of all students in the classroom;
- Accommodations regarding instruction and testing
- Helpful interventions and modifications for behavior management
